FORESTRY, FIRE AND STATE LANDS ADVISORY COUNCIL WILL MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

The Forestry, Fire and State Lands Advisory Council will meet in regular session on Thursday, March 18, 2004, at the Holiday Inn Airport, 1659 West North Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah. The meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m. and the public is invited to attend.

Items to be discussed include a reports on the just concluded legislative session, debris in Great Salt Lake exposed by low water levels, an update concerning the status of a lawsuit involving the Stansbury Island road, and the status of efforts to settle the boundary of Utah Lake.

Other items to be discussed include a proposal to open up additional exposed Great Salt Lake lakebed to off-highway-vehicle use, a proposed withdrawal of land use applications for Utah Lake, and an amendment to the state Right of Entry Rule.

The Forestry, Fire and State Lands Advisory Council is composed of citizens representing various areas of the state and are appointed by the governor. The council advises the Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands on policy issues.
